Kala Ellis is the creator and writer of SPREADSHEET (Channel 4 / Paramount + / CBC / TVNZ) – a female driven, 8 x 30-minute scripted comedy series, starring Katherine Parkinson – and is about a divorced, hectically busy mother of two who is looking for sex without commitment.

SPREADSHEET is Kala's debut into the narrative comedy space, having previously worked within a plethora of other genres as a Writer, Producer and Director for over 15 years – where she has worked with all manner of talent; celebrities, crocodiles, puppets and politicians – which frankly have rather a lot in common.

Her passion is telling authentic stories about just how crazy it is being human – and the more complicated, messy and hilarious the better. Kala is currently developing a number of new narrative drama/comedy series.
